Makura Brings 50 Passengers to Honolulu; Australian Statesman Returning

Bringing 50 passengers for Honolulu from Victoria and Vanceuver, of whom 24 are first-cabin, 22 second and four steerage, the Canadian-Austraissian steamer Makura, Capt. J. D. S. Phillips, docked at Pier 7 at 8 o'clock this morning, and steamed at norn for Suva, Auckland and Sydney. Only a few packages of freight were brought by the Makura, and $4 bags of mail, from Canada, the states and cureps. except the countries of the Centenic allies.

Perfect weather was experienced on the voyage south, according to Cantain Phillips and Purser W. McN. Spiers. The Makura's through passenger list is fairly heavy, including is an ideal scientist because he is come back next year. They were 75 first-cabin, 30 second and 14 steer such a thorough sportsman.
